

SONORAN PREVENTION WORKS RECEIVES $3,000 FROM THE ELIZABETH TAYLOR AIDS FOUNDATION IN PARTNERSHIP WITH MACY'S.

February 12, 2018, Phoenix, AZ -- Sonoran Prevention Works (SPW) has been awarded a grant for $3,000 from The Elizabeth Taylor Aids Foundation (ETAF) in partnership with Macy's. The grant will be used for the Shot in the Dark outreach project; which is a unique vehicle to deliver street-based HIV prevention for people who use drugs.

SPW is honored to be recognized for our unique work in the community. "The work that Sonoran Prevention Works does to help people affected by HIV/AIDS is impressive, and very much aligned with Elizabeth Taylor's passionate commitment to the cause," said Joel Goldman, Managing Director of The Elizabeth Taylor AIDS Foundation. "ETAF and our partners at Macy's are thrilled to present Sonoran Prevention Works with these funds to help further our shared mission."

Through their Cause Marketing Program, Macy's recognizes their responsibility to the community and their concern for the needs of their neighbors. They are proud to partner with ETAF and have contributed to this grant.

About Sonoran Prevention Works

SPW's mission is to end health disparities faced by those made vulnerable by drug use & other high-risk behaviors in Arizona through harm reduction focused education, advocacy, and evidence-based programming. SPW operates the state's largest overdose prevention program, offering free education and resources to behavioral health agencies, hospitals, law enforcement, family members, and people who are at risk for overdose.

About The Elizabeth Taylor AIDS Foundation

ETAF was established by the legendary actress, Elizabeth Taylor, in 1991 to provide grants to existing organizations offering direct care to people living with and affected by HIV and AIDS. Since its inception, ETAF has concentrated on supporting marginalized communities and has expanded our funding to support innovative HIV prevention, education and advocacy programs. To date, ETAF has granted to more than 675 organizations in 44 countries and 42 states in the U.S.
